Extreme Journey Middle School Summer Camp

Summer 2010

Imagine a summer camp that combines outdoor adventures, cutting-edge technology and a chance to re-live history!

Here is a chance to hike, bike, canoe and explore heritage sites that line the Old Carolina Road from Gettysburg to Monticello - recapture stories of courage and sacrifice, retrace the footsteps of historic leaders, share in their decision making.

Combining physical exercise, the latest technology and the amazing opportunity to examine the past first hand, campers will experience a truly energizing way of learning history that engages them and gets them thinking.

- Open to: Rising 6th, 7th and 8th graders
- Dates: Monday July 12 through Friday July 23
- Cost: $575 (includes snacks and rental fees)
Campers pack a bag lunch.
- Host School: Smart's Mill Middle School
850 North King St., Leesburg
- Registration: opens February 8, 2010
(open until filled)

This two-week, full day program offers a unique chance for your child to explore nearby heritage sites under the guidance of local experts who will lead the group in hands-on historical interpretation.

Using digital cameras and video recorders, campers will capture stories from the past, and then learn how to create short videos interpreting the impact of these people and places on our lives today.

Space is limited to 24 students. Register now for this summer program sponsored in partnership between Loudoun County Public Schools and the Journey Through Hallowed Ground Partnership.
