Can You Prove It? STEP THREE: PowerPoint Guide

Directions: Create a PowerPoint presentation that features the information provided below.

ONE: Title and brief summary of the civil war book read

TWO: Feature slides with at least four significant events from the story. (Use the Identify Significant Events Form to help develop these slides.)

THREE: THE HEART OF THE POWERPOINT

Refer to the information gathered during Primary Source Scavenger Hunt and select at least four primary documents that relate to events in the story you read. Now Prove or Disprove information from the story! Explain how events or ideas described by the author are consistent with the primary documents you uncovered or how they differ.

Show at least four primary sources as you Prove or Disprove the information.

FOUR: Conclude the PowerPoint with a final analysis of primary documents by answering the questions, “Are primary source documents useful to historical writers and curators? And if yes, “Why are they useful?”
