

THE JOURNEY THROUGH HALLOWED GROUND

NATIONAL HERITAGE AREA

The Journey Through Hallowed Ground stretches 175 miles along the Route 15 Corridor from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania through Frederick County, Maryland and ends at Thomas Jefferson's Monticello near Charlottesville, Virginia. Its ground is a treasure trove of history—Native and African-American sites, restored architectural gems, Presidential homes, battlefields—but the land is also alive with vibrant downtowns, rich agriculture and an abundant bounty of wineries, inns, beds-and-breakfasts, fairs and antique dealers. The Journey is, indeed, Hallowed. It deserves to be cherished. It must be celebrated. But most of all, it yearns to be enjoyed!

PLAN YOUR JOURNEY HERE

	MONTECELLO	ORANGE	MADISON	CULPEPER	WARRENTON	HAYMARKET	LEESBURG	FREDERICK	GETTYSBURG
GETTYSBURG	175	147	133	118	94	79	59	34
FREDERICK	141	113	99	84	60	45	25	Y	34
LEESBURG	110	88	74	59	35	20	E	25	59
HAYMARKET	96	68	54	39	15	N	20	45	79
WARRENTON	81	53	39	24	R	15	35	60	94
CULPEPER	67	29	15	U	24	39	59	84	118
MADISON	42	14	O	15	30	54	74	99	133
ORANGE	28	J	14	29	53	68	88	113	147
MONTECELLO	20	42	57	81	95	116	141	175

GETTYSBURG, PA

Often called the most famous small town in America, the historic district has retained the charm of days gone by. Home of the Gettysburg National Military Park, the Eisenhower National Historic Site, and the Soldiers National Cemetery where President Lincoln gave the Gettysburg Address. Enjoy walking tours, museums, theater, fine dining and unique lodging along the way.

Visitor Information:
Gettysburg Convention and Visitors Bureau
 102 Carlisle Street, Gettysburg, PA 17325
 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM, Monday - Saturday • 9:30 AM - 3:00 PM, Sunday
 Phone: 717-334-6274, 1-800-337-5015 • Email: info@gettysburg.travel
 Web site: gettysburg.travel

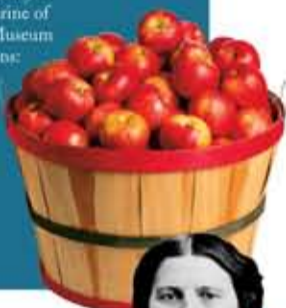

At President Dwight D. Eisenhower's farm near Gettysburg, kids can be Junior Secret Service Agents.

FREDERICK, MD

Maryland's second largest city beckons you with historic sites, museums and the 50-block downtown Historic District. The National Trust for Historic Preservation awarded the Downtown Frederick Partnership the 2005 Great American Main Street Award. Within the County of Frederick, discover historic bridges, the National Shrine of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the Brunswick Railroad Museum C&O Canal Visitor Center, and Civil War attractions: Monocacy National Battlefield, South Mountain Battlefield State Park, and the National Museum of Civil War Medicine.

Visitor Information:
Tourism Council of Frederick County, Inc.
 19 East Church St. Frederick, MD 21701
 Visitor Center open daily • 1-800-999-3613
 Email: tourism@fredco-md.net
 Web site: www.fredericktourism.org

Clara Barton was the "Angel of the Battlefield" of the Battle of Antietam.

LEESBURG, VA

Founded in 1758, Leesburg is a charming, historic town. It's also the county seat of Loudoun which beckons visitors with its other towns and villages, gracious horse country, rolling hills, and scenic vistas. Nestled along the Potomac River in Northern Virginia, Loudoun boasts award-winning wineries and vineyards, heritage sites, championship golf courses, unique shopping and destination dining.

Visitor Information:
Loudoun Convention and Visitors Association
 222 Catoctin Circle, SE, Suite 100
 Leesburg, VA 20175
 Visitor Center is open daily • 1-800-752-6118
 Email: VCHost@VisitLoudoun.org
 Web site: www.visitloudoun.org

John Brown's Bloody Insurrection at Harpers Ferry helped ignite the Civil War.

A school in Leesburg, VA, named for Frederick Douglass was the first built and paid for by African-Americans.

Civil War Confederate Col. John S. Mosby was called The Gray Ghost for his Guerrilla tactics in Fauquier and Loudoun Counties.

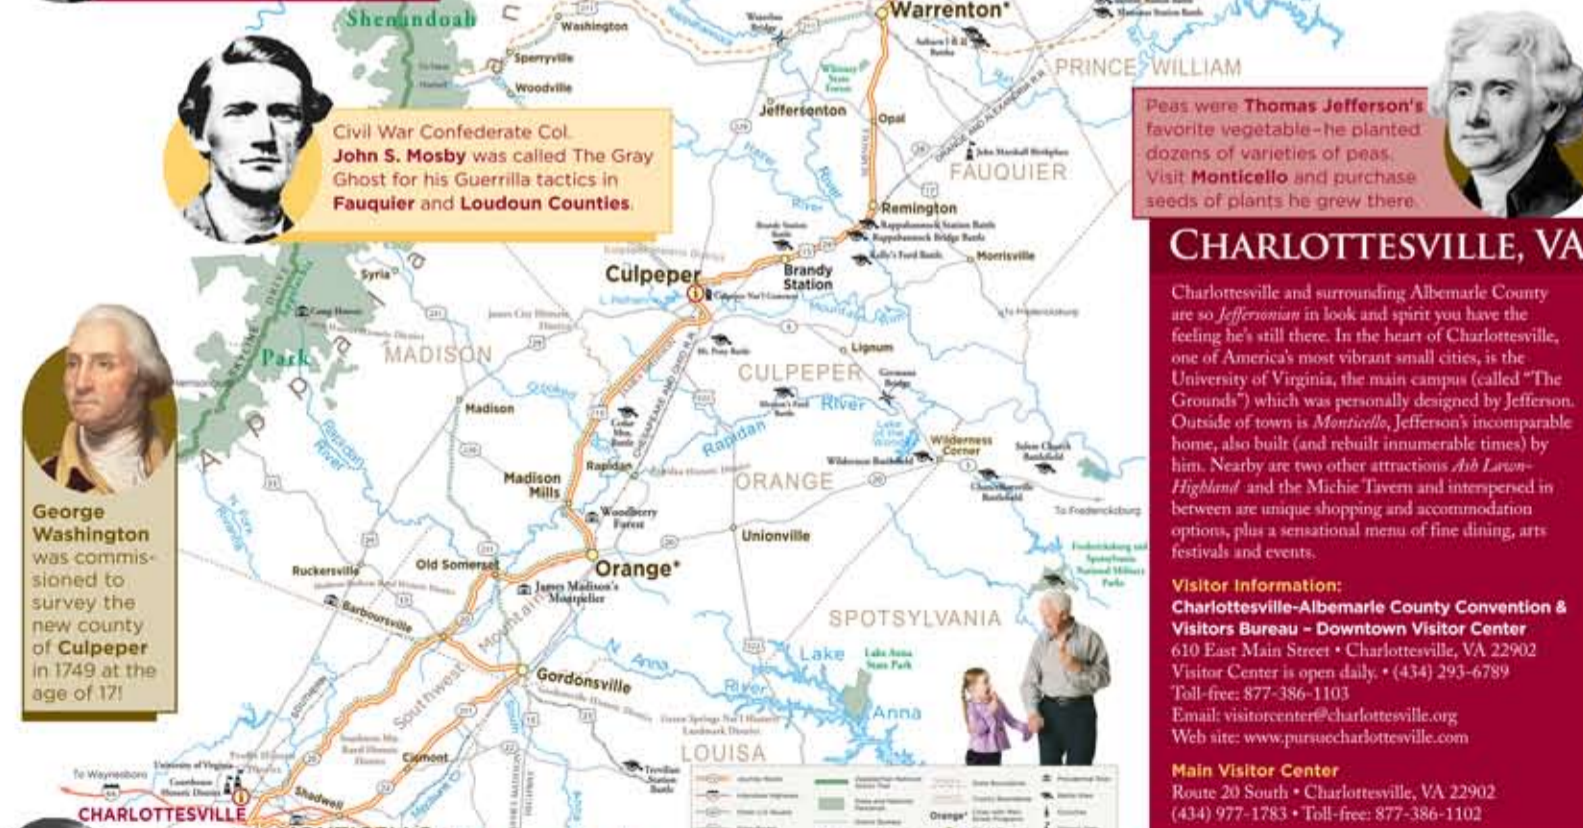

Peas were Thomas Jefferson's favorite vegetable—he planted dozens of varieties of peas. Visit Monticello and purchase seeds of plants he grew there.

George Washington was commissioned to survey the new county of Culpeper in 1749 at the age of 17!

President Theodore Roosevelt's rustic retreat, Pine Knot, is near Keene, VA.

British Col. Banastre Tarleton almost caught Gov. Jefferson in Albemarle County. Patriot Jack Jouett warned him and saved him.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

Charlottesville and surrounding Albemarle County are so Jeffersonian in look and spirit you have the feeling he's still there. In the heart of Charlottesville, one of America's most vibrant small cities, is the University of Virginia, the main campus (called "The Grounds") which was personally designed by Jefferson. Outside of town is Monticello, Jefferson's incomparable home, also built (and rebuilt innumerable times) by him. Nearby are two other attractions Ash Lawn-Highland and the Michie Tavern and interspersed in between are unique shopping and accommodation options, plus a sensational menu of fine dining, arts festivals and events.

Visitor Information:
Charlottesville-Albemarle County Convention & Visitors Bureau - Downtown Visitor Center
 610 East Main Street • Charlottesville, VA 22902
 Visitor Center is open daily • (434) 293-6789
 Toll-free: 877-386-1103
 Email: visitorcenter@charlottesville.org
 Web site: www.pursuecharlottesville.com

Main Visitor Center
 Route 20 South • Charlottesville, VA 22902
 (434) 977-1783 • Toll-free: 877-386-1102

JOIN US!

The Journey Through Hallowed Ground Partnership is a nonprofit organization dedicated to celebrating the unparalleled history of this region and encouraging Americans and world visitors to appreciate, respect, and experience this cultural landscape that makes it uniquely American.

www.HallowedGround.org
 540-882-4929

