

Extreme Journey
Summer Camp Schedule (2016)
(Loudoun County- Session 1)

Monday, July 11
Drop-off: 8:00 am
Pick-up: 5:30 pm

Canoeing the Potomac River to explore life among the Piscataway and other local Native American groups

Tuesday, July 12
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will travel to Oatlands Estate and Gardens where they will discover accounts of local leaders from the past and discuss the value of historical sites, including why they are preserved and how they are interpreted.

Wednesday, July 13
Drop-off: 8:30 am
Pick-up: 6:45 pm
(Depending on Traffic)

Uncovering the triumphs and tragedies of Thomas Jefferson at his Monticello estate in Charlottesville, Virginia; Researching the lives and experiences of the Jefferson family and the plantation's enslaved community

Thursday, July 14
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will tour The Marshall House to learn about the remarkable leadership style and incredible service to country of George C. Marshall.

Friday, July 15
Drop-off: 6:15 am
Pick-up: 6:30 pm

Biking the C&O Canal towpath to investigate tales of leaders with the dedication to turn long-term visions into reality; Applying the model of the Corps of Discovery to role-play as "corps" teams in uncovering why Meriwether Lewis visited Harpers Ferry in 1803 and why the town was so significant to the great adventure that opened the American West; Analyzing John Brown's raid of 1859 on the United States Armory and Arsenal and examining the civil rights efforts of Niagara Movement members at Storer College

- | | |
|--|--|
| Monday, July 13
 Drop-off: 7:15 am
 Pick-up: 5:45 pm | Investigating the landscape at Antietam National Battlefield to determine what role it played in the Maryland Campaign of 1862 and studying the decisive decisions made there by Confederate and Union commanders; Distinguishing the system of treatment used to handle the extraordinary amount of wounded in the heat of a massive conflict; Tubing Antietam Creek to identify its importance in the bloodiest day in American history |
| Tuesday, July 14
 Drop-off: 9:00 am
 Pick-up: 5:00 pm | Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
 From 2:00pm-4:30 pm students will engage in a local history tour with educational staff members from the Mosby Heritage Area Association. |
| Wednesday, July 15
 Drop-off: 7:45 am
 Pick-up: 6:30 pm | Cycling the battlefield at Gettysburg to study the significance of the three-day clash there and the pivotal leaders whose decision-making affected its outcome |
| Thursday, July 16
 Drop-off: 9:00 am
 Pick-Up: 5:00 pm | Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
 From 12:30 pm-4:30 pm students will venture to Camp Highroad near Middleburg, Virginia to test their leadership abilities and develop their teambuilding skills on the zip-line and challenge course. |
| Friday, July 17
 Time: 11:00 am | WORLD PREMIERE of student documentaries at Smart's Mill Middle School Auditorium |

Phone tree and group text message will be used to communicate early or late arrivals

Extreme Journey
Summer Camp Schedule (2015)
(Loudoun County- Session 2)

Monday, July 18
Drop-off: 8:00 am
Pick-up: 5:30 pm

Canoeing the Potomac River to explore life among the Piscataway and other local Native American groups

Tuesday, July 19
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will travel to Oatlands Estate and Gardens where they will discover accounts of local leaders from the past and discuss the value of historical sites, including why they are preserved and how they are interpreted.

Wednesday, July 20
Drop-off: 8:30 am
Pick-up: 6:45 pm

Biking the C&O Canal towpath to investigate tales of leaders with the dedication to turn long-term visions into reality; Applying the model of the Corps of Discovery to role-play as "corps" teams in uncovering why Meriwether Lewis visited Harpers Ferry in 1803 and why the town was so significant to the great adventure that opened the American West; Analyzing John Brown's raid of 1859 on the United States Armory and Arsenal and examining the civil rights efforts of Niagara Movement members at Storer College

Thursday, July 21
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will tour The Marshall House to learn about the remarkable leadership style and incredible service to country of George C. Marshall.

Friday, July 22
Drop-off: 6:15 am
Pick-up: 6:30 pm
(Depending on Traffic)

Uncovering the triumphs and tragedies of Thomas Jefferson at his Monticello estate in Charlottesville, Virginia; Researching the lives and experiences of the Jefferson family and the plantation's enslaved community

Monday, July 25 Drop-off: 7:15 am Pick-up: 5:45 pm	Investigating the landscape at Antietam National Battlefield to determine what role it played in the Maryland Campaign of 1862 and studying the decisive decisions made there by Confederate and Union commanders; Distinguishing the system of treatment used to handle the extraordinary amount of wounded in the heat of a massive conflict; Tubing Antietam Creek to identify its importance in the bloodiest day in American history
Tuesday, July 26 Drop-off: 9:00 am Pick-up: 5:00 pm	Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will engage in a local history tour with educational staff members from the Mosby Heritage Area Association.
Wednesday, July 27 Drop-off: 7:45 am Pick-up: 6:30 pm	Cycling the battlefield at Gettysburg to study the significance of the three-day clash there and the pivotal leaders whose decision-making affected its outcome
Thursday, July 28 Drop-off: 9:00 am Pick-Up: 5:00 pm	Lab Day at Smart's Mill Middle School From 12:30 pm-4:30 pm students will venture to Camp Highroad near Middleburg, Virginia to test their leadership abilities and develop their teambuilding skills on the zip-line and challenge course.
Friday, July 29 Time: 11:00 am	WORLD PREMIERE of student documentaries at Smart's Mill Middle School Auditorium

Phone tree and group text message will be used to communicate early or late arrivals

Extreme Journey
Summer Camp Schedule (2015)
(Loudoun County- Session 3)

Monday, July 25
Drop-off: 8:00 am
Pick-up: 5:30 pm

Canoeing the Potomac River to explore life among the Piscataway and other local Native American groups

Tuesday, July 26
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Harper Park Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will travel to Oatlands Estate and Gardens where they will discover accounts of local leaders from the past and discuss the value of historical sites, including why they are preserved and how they are interpreted.

Wednesday, July 27
Drop-off: 8:30 am
Pick-up: 6:45 pm

Biking the C&O Canal towpath to investigate tales of leaders with the dedication to turn long-term visions into reality; Applying the model of the Corps of Discovery to role-play as "corps" teams in uncovering why Meriwether Lewis visited Harpers Ferry in 1803 and why the town was so significant to the great adventure that opened the American West; Analyzing John Brown's raid of 1859 on the United States Armory and Arsenal and examining the civil rights efforts of Niagara Movement members at Storer College

Thursday, July 28
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Harper Park Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will tour The Marshall House to learn about the remarkable leadership style and incredible service to country of George C. Marshall.

Friday, July 29
Drop-off: 6:15 am
Pick-up: 6:30 pm
(Depending on Traffic)

Uncovering the triumphs and tragedies of Thomas Jefferson at his Monticello estate in Charlottesville, Virginia; Researching the lives and experiences of the Jefferson family and the plantation's enslaved community

Monday, August 1
Drop-off: 7:15 am
Pick-up: 5:45 pm

Investigating the landscape at Antietam National Battlefield to determine what role it played in the Maryland Campaign of 1862 and studying the decisive decisions made there by Confederate and Union commanders; Distinguishing the system of treatment used to handle the extraordinary amount of wounded in the heat of a massive conflict; Tubing Antietam Creek to identify its importance in the bloodiest day in American history

Tuesday, August 2
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Harper Park Middle School
From 2:00 pm-4:30 pm students will engage in a local history tour with educational staff members from the Mosby Heritage Area Association.

Wednesday, August 3
Drop-off: 7:45 am
Pick-up: 6:30 pm

Cycling the battlefield at Gettysburg to study the significance of the three-day clash there and the pivotal leaders whose decision-making affected its outcome

Thursday, August 4
Drop-off: 9:00 am
Pick-Up: 5:00 pm

Lab Day at Harper Park Middle School
From 12:30 pm-4:30 pm students will venture to Camp Highroad near Middleburg, Virginia to test their leadership abilities and develop their teambuilding skills on the zip-line and challenge course.

Friday, August 5
Time: 11:00 am

WORLD PREMIERE of student documentaries
at Harper Park Middle School Auditorium

Phone tree and group text message will be used to communicate early or late arrivals

